(The Deputy Chairman in th Chair)

SHRI YASHWANT SINHA (Bihar: Madam, I have a question to as about the order paper... (Interruj tions)... Madam, about the ord<paper I have a question to ask.

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: U m_e take the order paper out befor you ask. Just a second. Yes, whi is It?

istiHL ^ASHWANI SKHA: Ma-dam, i uad inat as usual tne last item on ilit- agenua lo. today s business lias been mentioned as oiarmeations on uie Statement by Minister for cnemicais on the decision of Uie Government rescinding tne Molasses Control Orcier. ' lus statement, Madam, was made on the 4tn of May and today is the 12th of May anu i was onJ oi those \ ho had given their names ior seekmj- clarifications, i am getting up to ;ell you that this is a very serious natter and that we hav$_{e}$ not been ab.e to find time to seek clarifications. This wnole Order of the Governmen is stinking to high heavens ... (Interruptions)... And it is even worse thai molasses, I mean, stinking more than molasses stink.

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: It is fermenting.

SHRI YASHWANT . SINHA: No, no; now I want ti know if we are going to find time, because I find at 7 O' clock we are going to take up half an hour diis u;sion. Now when do we find time o discuss this statement? In the Eci-nomic Times today there is an item 'P.M. to dtcide on Molasses Decont ol". Then there is another item saying "Molasses Decontrol not yet in sight".

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN; Mr. Yashwant Sinha, may I remind the Members that there was something happening in th$_{e}$ other House and OUT Members were s) keen to go there and there was n ibody? The Minister did tell me "Whenever you want me to come and give whatever clarifications the Membe s want, I am there." But we should lave had people here to ask for clarifu ations.

SHRI YASHWANT SINHA; I was here all the time

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN; You are only one and o le person does not make the quorum. We need people to have a quori; m to run the House. And that wa$_{s}$ the difficulty. If you want, I can call him. ... (Interruptions) ... We will ask the Minister to be present to explain what-ever clarifications you want on this, because he did come twlice to me and said. "I am there to clarify the points." But I said there should be people to ask questions.

SHRI YASHWANT SINHA; Madam let this matter be taken up today. We must take it up today.

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN; All right. Your point is well taken.

Re surrender of economic and polii-cal sovereignty

SHRI YASHWANT SINHA (Bihar) Now, I have another lissue to raise for which I have taken your permission and the Chairman's permission, Madam.

Madam$_{1}$ the question of the surrender of economic and also political sovereignty of this country and the question of decisions in regard to economic matters being taken not here but elsewhere outside the country, these issues, these questions have been raised by all of us sitting here in the Opposition and some Members also from the Treasury Benches, but the Government has always chosen to stoutly deny the fact that there is any foreign pressure in regard to the economic decision-making process of this particular Government. Now, Madam ,1 have here with me a document which will clearly prove that months before the current year's Budget of 1993-94 was presented to Parliament, th$_{e}$ Finance Ministry and the Government of India had taken foreign financial institutions int$_{0}$ confidence in regard to major policy changes. In fact, it will be more correct to say that these policy changes were dictated by the foreign financial institutions and it was under their pressure that : these policy changes have been introduced in our Budget. I have here the
